JDI's goal is to enhance the exchange of knowledge encompassed by the general topic of Imaging Informatics in Medicine including, but not limited to, research and practice in clinical, engineering, information technologies and techniques in all medical imaging environments. The study was approved by the Bioethics Committee of the Medical University of A (No. ...).• This study was performed in line with the principles of the Declaration of Helsinki. Examples include: translations or a manuscript that is intended for a different group of readers. related to the research may include but are not limited to the following: • Research grants from funding agencies (please give the research funder and the grant number) • Honoraria for speaking at symposia • Financial support for attending symposia • Financial symposia • Financial symposia • Financial symposia • Financial sy project sponsor • Position on advisory board or board of directors or other type of management relationships • Multiple affiliations • Financial relationships, for example equity ownership or investment interest • Intellectual property rights (e.g. patents, copyrights and royalties from such rights) • Holdings of spouse and/or children that may have financial interest in the work In addition, interests that go beyond financial interests and compensation (non-financial interests) that may be important to readers should be disclosed. Date when writing in English. Fundamental errors Authors have an obligation to correct mistakes once they discover a significant error or inaccuracy in their published article. • If an appendix appears in your article/chapter and it contains one or more figures, continue the consecutive numbering of the main text. No data, text, or theories by others are presented as if they were the author's own ('plagiarism'). • Use a normal, plain font (e.g., 10-point Times Roman) for text. The author will be held responsible for false statements or failure to fulfill the above-mentioned guidelines. Footnotes to the text are numbered consecutively; those to tables should be indicated by superscript lower-case letters (or asterisks for significance values and other statistical data). Self-identifying citations and references in the article text should either be avoided or left blank. TEXT FORMATTINGManuscripts should be prepared to collect documentation of compliance with ethical standards and send if requested during peer review or after publication. The Editors reserve the right to reject manuscripts that do not comply with the above-mentioned guidelines. Any material received without such evidence will be assumed to originate from the authors. FIGURE LETTERING • To add lettering, it is best to use Helvetica or Arial (sans serif fonts). If a study was granted exemption or did not require ethics approval, this should also be detailed in the manuscript. "This study was performed in line with the principles of the Declaration of Helsinki. Dr. C has received speaker honorarium and research funding from Company N. Abstract Please provide an abstract of 150 to 250 words. • Experience reports designed to provide a vehicle for a group to describe their experience with a new technology or method or a novel approach to using an existing technology. • Do not include titles or captions into your illustrations. • Variance of type size within an illustration should be minimal, e.g., do not 8-pt type on an axis and 20-pt type for the axis label. Statements and Declarations, such as Competing Interests and Author Contributions, should be provided here. Reviews should include an introduction, a detailed review of the literature, a discussion and summary. If you use the Cancer Imaging Archive (TCIA) for your research, JDI requires that you include a link in your publication to the imaging data used in your analysis. Using a professional language editing service where editors will improve the English to ensure that your meaning is clear and identify problems that require your review. The author(s) is/are requested to contact the journal and explain in what sense the error is impacting the article. Indicate what graphics program was used to create the artwork. A statement confirming that consent to publish has been received from all participants should appear in the manuscript. Example statement: "The authors affirm that human research participants provided informed consent for publication of the images in Figure(s) 1a, 1b and 1c." Please refer to the section on "Informed Consent" for additional help with completing this information. Specialized Formats Specialized format such as .pdb (chemical), .wrl (VRML), .nb (Mathematica notebook), and .tex can also be supplied. If cells were bought from a life science company the following need to be given in the manuscript: name of company (that provided the cells), cell type, number of cell line, and batch of cells. It is recommended that authors check the NCBI database for misidentification and contamination of human cell lines. . Depending on the situation, this may result in the Journal's and/or Publisher's implementation of the following measures, including, but not limited to: If the manuscript is still under consideration, it may be rejected and returned to the author. The text should be arranged in the order: Abstract, Background, Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, and Acknowledgements. • Technical tutorials with descriptions of how authors accomplished a particular task in a novel way. Important note: the journal may use software to screen for plagiarism. This feature can add dimension to the author's article, as certain information cannot be printed or is more convenient in electronic form. Before submitting research datasets as Supplementary Information, authors should read the journal's Research data policy. If you need help with writing in English you should consider: Getting a fast, free online grammar check. This step will alert authors to possible problems with the cell line and may save considerable time and effort. Further information is available from the International Cell Line Authentication Committee (ICLAC). Authors should include a statement that confirms that an institutional or independent ethics committee (ICLAC). the donor or next of kin. Interests within the last 3 years of beginning the work (conducting the research and preparing the work for submission) should be reported. Author B has received a speaker honorarium from Company X and owns stock in Company Y. Include the captions in the text file of the manuscript, not in the figure file. • Use the automatic page numbering function to number the pages. Sensitive information in the form of confidential or proprietary data is excluded. If there is suspicion of misbehavior or alleged fraud the Journal and/or Publisher will carry out an investigation following COPE guidelines. Do not number the appendix figures, "A1, A2, A3, etc." Figures in online appendices (Electronic supplementary Material) should, however, be numbered separately. Research articles and non-research articles) must cite appropriate and relevant literature in support of the claims made. For color in the print version, authors will be expected to make a contribution towards the extra costs. The aspect of confidentiality as well as any wishes from the deceased should be respected. • Use the equation editor or MathType for equations. The statement should include details of any grants received (please give the name of the funding agency and grant number). Example statements: "This work was supported by [...] (Grant numbers [...] and [...]). Article publishing agreement Depending on the ownership of the journal and its policies, you will either grant the Publisher an exclusive licence to publish the article or will be asked to transfer copyright of the article to the Publisher. • Name your figure files with Fig and the figure number, e.g., Fig1.eps. Ethics approval for retrospective studies Although retrospective studies are conducted on already available data or biological material (for which formal consent may not be needed or is difficult to obtain) ethics approval may be required dependent on the law and the national ethical guidelines of a country. The text should be arranged in the order: Abstract, Background or Introduction, Review, Discussion, Summary, Acknowledgements. All four types of manuscripts will undergo the same rigorous review process. FIGURE NUMBERING • All figures are to be numbered using Arabic numerals. The XYZ Research Ethics Committee has confirmed that no ethical approval is required. LINE ART • Definition: Black and white graphic with no shading. After release of the printed version, the paper can also be cited by issue and page numbers. Asking a colleague who is proficient in English to review your manuscript for clarity. This could be in the form of raw data, samples, records, etc. For example, masking the eye region in photographs of participants is inadequate protection of anonymity. In the case of articles describing human transplantation studies, authors must include a statement declaring that no organs/tissues were obtained from prisoners and must also name the institution(s)/clinic(s)/department(s) via which organs/tissues were obtained. When suggesting reviewers, authors should make sure they are totally independent and not connected to the work in any way. References should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are first cited. This is especially true concerning images of vulnerable people (e.g. minors, patients, refugees, etc) or the use of images in sensitive contexts. Authors must disclose all relationships or interests that could influence or bias the work. In author collaborations where formal agreements for representation allow it, it is sufficient for the corresponding authors. Please note that changes to authorship cannot be made after acceptance of a manuscript. • Identify all elements found in the figure in t caption; and use boxes, circles, etc., as coordinate points in graphs. Examples include creation of harmful consequences of biological agents or toxins, disruption of research/technology (amongst others). Research that may be misapplied to pose a threat to public health or national security should be clearly identified in the manuscript (e.g. dual use of research). This journal is committed to upholding the integrity of the scientific record. Research Resource Identifiers (RRID) are persistent unique identifiers (effectively similar to a DOI) for research resources. • Color illustrations should be submitted as RGB (8 bits per channel). Approval was granted by the Ethics Committee of University B (Date.../No. ...).• Approval was obtained from the ethics committee of University C. The procedures used in this study adhere to the tenets of the Declaration of Helsinki.• The questionnaire and methodology for this study was approved by the Human Research Ethics committee of the University of D (Ethics approval number: ...). Examples of statements to be used for a retrospective study:• Ethical approval was waived by the local Ethics Committee of University A in view of the routine care.• This research study was conducted retrospectively from data obtained for clinical purposes. See also Authorship Principles. Author D has received travel support from Company O. • Do not use faint lines and/or lettering and check that all lines and lettering within the figures are legible at final size. Awareness of real or perceived conflicts of interests is a perspective to which the readers are entitled and is not meant to imply that a financial relationship with an organization that sponsored the research or compensation for consultancy work is inappropriate. See below examples of disclosures: • Funding: This study was funded by X (grant number X). Clinical Trial Registration The World Health Organization (WHO) definition of a clinical trial is "any research study that prospectively assigns human participants or groups of humans to one or more health-related interventions to evaluate the effects on health outcomes". • For vector graphics, the preferred format is EPS; for halftones, please use TIFF format. Always use footnotes instead of endnotes. The Editor-in-Chief reserves the right to reject submissions that do not meet the guidelines described in this section. Images will be removed and replaced with a notice explaining the reason for removal. When the preprint is published in a journal, it becomes the author's responsibility to ensure that the preprint record is updated with a publication reference, including the DOI and URL link to the published version of the article on the journal website. , 7 , . The Editor-in-Chief reserves the right to reject submissions that do not meet the guidelines described in this section. Accessibility In order to give people of all abilities and disabilities access to the content of your supplementary files, please make sure that The manuscript contains a descriptive caption for each supplementary materialVideo files do not contain anything that flashes more than three times per second (so that users prone to seizures caused by such effects are not put at risk) Upon acceptance, your article will be exported to Production to undergo typesetting. Once typesetting is complete, you will receive a link asking you to confirm your affiliation, choose the publishing model for your article as well as arrange rights and payment of any associated publication cost. Once you have completed this your article will be processed and you will receive the proofs. The trial registration number (TRN), date of registration and the words 'retrospectively registered' should be included as the last line of the manuscript abstract. Although an author may not feel there are conflicts, disclosure of relationships and interests affords a more transparent process, leading to an accurate and objective assessment of the work. • Figure parts should be denoted by lowercase letters (a, b, c, etc.). FIGURE PLACEMENT AND SIZE • Figures should be submitted separately from the text, if possible. • Keep lettering consistently sized throughout your final-sized artwork, usually about 2-3 mm (8-12 pt). Standards of reporting Springer Nature advocates complete and transparent reporting of biomedical and biological research and research and research and research and research with biological applications. Manuscripts must be in English, and authors are urged to aim for clarity, brevity, and accuracy of information and language. Permissions Authors wishing to include figures, tables, or text passages that have already been published elsewhere are required to obtain permission from the copyright owner(s) for both the print and online format and to include evidence that such permission has been granted when submitting their papers. Only works referred to in the text and already accepted for publication can be included: Articles from journals: Names(s) and initials of all author(s): full article title.
